Meeting ELCA requirements at HDS

The ELCA requirements for the so-called Lutheran Year give good guidance for study while at HDS. This table, from the ELCA Candidacy Manual, states the purpose of this year and how a student might fulfill that purpose while at HDS.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A solid grounding in Lutheran systematic theology and the Luther Confessions and to enable the candidate to articulate a Lutheran theological perspective. This happens not only in the study of theology, but in the study of church history, Bible, worship, preaching, education, pastoral care, and ethics; it occurs not only in the classroom but through the total teaching/learning environment and culture of the seminary;</td>
<td>Courses of study in theology, scripture, church history, preaching, pastoral care, and ethics. Courses in Lutheran polity and Lutheran confessions.</td>
<td>Active engagement in the HDS Lutheran community, worship in local Lutheran congregations, field education in local Lutheran congregations, consultation with and guidance of HDS Lutheran denominational counselors.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A sound understanding of ministry in a Lutheran context, including the integrity and variety of Lutheran worship; an appreciation of the relationship between lay and ordained ministries; a familiarity with policy and practice associated with approval, call, and mobility; and the expectations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America of its ordained ministers</td>
<td></td>
<td>Active engagement in the HDS Lutheran community, participation in local Lutheran events and gatherings, engagement in ecumenical and interfaith events.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Become a participant in the current theological conversation of the ELCA and to establish relationships with future colleagues in ministry that are marked by mutual support, accountability, and a strong sense of shared mission.</td>
<td></td>
